It's summertime and the livin' is easy.....
All is well here on the Farm. Spring is always a very busy season for us, working to plant the gardens, paint the assorted porches, catching up on all of the outdoor maintenance and of course mowing, mowing, mowing. But at the end of the day when we are sitting on a freshly painted porch sipping a cold drink, it makes it all worth it. The gardens are all in and are doing very well, with this warm weather and all. We will have bumper crops of tomatoes, peppers, herbs and various squashes. The large assortments of flowers are kicking too!
Cheers to you and bring on the summer fun!

Hot off the Presses!

Cincinnati Magazine just made a visit to the Farm for an upcoming article due out later this fall about cool cooking places in Ohio. Yippee...we are so cool!

ONN, the cable side of 10TV is selling advertising for a show (6 episodes at first) about the fun here at Woodhaven Farm. They will be filming some of our events as almost a reality show. Not cooking demonstrations, like most other cooking shows. Just the normal day to day organized chaos that is Woodhaven Farm! If you know of anyone that would be interested in advertising, please let me know.

Vino 100 Great wine shop at Polaris (100 great wines under $25)and Woodhaven Farm are pairing up for a cooking demonstration and wine tasting on July 22nd, 6:30 featuring Wine Bar Foods at Home and Bordeaux wines. The price is only $50 and seating is limited. Please contact Liz Avera at info@vino100polaris.com to make reservations. This will be great fun, great food, great wine and entertaining conversation!

What's New?

It's time to clean out the stuff we don't use, so we have started a "Cook's Corner" loaded with all sorts of kitchen gadgets, dishes, and assorted weird things, all at bargain prices. Come and take a look at your next visit.

If all goes well, Carl will have a Baby Sister around the 4th of July. Her name will be Glory! I'll keep you in the loop on that. For those of you that don't know Carl, he is our Rottweiler mascot who likes to visit with the guests. He is a true 'Rottenweiler'!

YES, WE ARE GOING TO DO A COOKBOOK!

As much as I have been putting this off, the inevitable has happened. We are going forth with our first cookbook.

Now we need a title. That's where you come in. We are holding a contest, now until the end of July, to name the Woodhaven Farm cookbook. Also, include any funny stories, anecdotes, jokes to be included in the book. Please submit your suggestions and the winner will receive not only recognition in the soon to be world famous collection of great recipes and urban legends, but a series of cooking classes ($117 value)and my sincere gratitude! The title should reflect the true theme of the Farm and the food we make together...Good luck!

Jingle Bells... Jingle Bells...
